

TORPEDOED BY GERMAN U-BOAT IN WAR ZONE; 70 MEN MISSING

Tragedy Carries Largest Casualty List of American Lives
—Marks Initial Success of Attacks on U. S. Army Transports

WAS HOMEWARD BOUND

Only Fortunate Circumstance was Fact That Antilles was Not On Her Way Over With Troops—All U. S. Officers Aboard are Saved—Neither Submarine nor Torpedo are Seen—Ship Sinks in Five Minutes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The American army transport Antilles, homeward bound under convoy, was torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine in the war zone Wednesday. About seventy men are missing and probably lost.

All the army and navy officers aboard and the ship's master were among the 167 survivors. The missing are members of the crew, three civilian engineers, some enlisted men of the navy and 17 of 22 soldiers returning home for various reasons. Neither the submarine nor the torpedo was seen and the transport, hit squarely amidship, sank in five minutes.

This tragedy of the sea, the first in which an American ship engaged in war duty has been lost, is the first of its magnitude to bring home to the people of the United States the rigors of the war in which they have engaged against Germany. It carries the largest casualty list of the war of American lives and marks the first success of German submarine attacks on American transports. That the loss of life was not greater is due to the safeguards with which the navy has surrounded the transport service and the quick rescue work of the convoying warships.

Secretary Daniels announced the disaster tonight in a statement based upon a brief dispatch from Vice-Admiral Sims which gave few details and did not say whether it was day or night attack. An accurate list of the missing cannot be learned until General Pershing reports the names of the army men on the vessel and the list of the merchant crew. Following is the announcement:

Secretary Daniels' Statement.
"The department is in receipt of a despatch from Vice-Admiral Sims in which he states that the Steamship Antilles, an army transport, was torpedoed on Oct. 17 while returning to this country from foreign service. This vessel was under convoy of American patrol vessels at the time.

"The torpedo which struck the Antilles was not seen nor was the submarine which fired it. The torpedo hit abreast of the engine room bulkhead and the ship sank within five minutes. One hundred and sixty seven persons out of about two hundred and thirty seven on board the Antilles were saved. About seventy men are missing."

"All the naval officers and officers of the army who were on board the ship at the time were saved, as were the officers of the ship with the exception of the following:

The Dead.
"W. A. Ker, third engineer officer.
"Boyle, junior engineer officer.
"O'Rourke, junior engineer officer.
"The following enlisted naval personnel were lost:
"E. L. Kinzey, seaman second class, next of kin, Thomas M. Kinzey, father, Water Valley, Miss.
"J. W. Hunt, seaman, second class, next of kin, Isaac Hunt, father, Mountain Grove, Mo., R. R. No. 2, Box 44.
"C. L. Ausburn, radio electrician, first class, next of kin, R. Ausburn, brother, 2800 Louisiana Ave., New Orleans, La.
"H. F. Watson, radio electrician, third class, next of kin, Mrs. W. L. Seger, mother, Rutland, Mass.

"There were about thirty three of the army enlisted personnel on board, of whom 17 were saved. The names of the missing of the army enlisted personnel and of the merchant crew of the ship cannot be given until the muster roll in France of those on board has been consulted. As soon as the department is in receipt of further details concerning the casualties they will be made public immediately."

Government Keeps Promise.

GERMAN CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Sought to Place Explosive On U. S. Convoing Transport

Caulker Employed at Brooklyn Navy Yard Causes Arrest of Charles Walnum—Attempted to Bribe Caulker with $20.

New York, Oct. 19.—On a charge of conspiracy to place an explosive on a United States conveying transport, formerly German-American liner, Charles Walnum, believed to be a German, was held without bail by a United States commissioner this afternoon for examination Oct. 24.

Walnum claimed to be a Norwegian and said he had taken out his first naturalization papers in this country. He pleaded not guilty and told the authorities he was not a spy. For six months he has been chief and pantryman on a yacht owned by Harry Payne Whitney.

The former German ship is at Brooklyn dry dock. James McLoughlin, a caulker employed at the yard, filed an affidavit setting forth Walnum's alleged attempt to bribe him by offering $20 to effect Walnum's entry to the yard and access to the ship, in company with a girl, Walnum and his companion to pose, according to the charge, as sight-seers.

It was Walnum's plan, according to McLoughlin, to induce a worker on the vessel to melt some of the rivets with a torch, after which Walnum was to place a bomb or other explosive on the ship which with the rivets damaged was certain to sink easily.

McLoughlin's story, supported by an affidavit made by a detective who arrested Walnum, was that Walnum displayed knowledge of turbines and other parts of former German liners.

It was testified that Walnum drew a sketch of the interior of the transport and pointed out the place where he was to place the bomb. McLoughlin caused the man's arrest by pretending to telephone to a girl who would join them in the conspiracy. Instead he telephoned the police. Walnum came here in January, 1916, from Buenos Aires, the federal authorities learned.

COAL SUPPLY LOW AT CAMP GRANT

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 19.—Camp Grant this morning had only enough coal on hand to last twenty-four hours. Eleven of the fifteen steam heating plants at the camp are now in commission. These are being run on low pressure today to conserve the supply. Officers and men were out with wagons sweeping the last particles of coal left on the ground by steam shovels or road rollers. Several carloads of coal were commandeered in Rockford yesterday and more was taken today. The coal shortage halts the road building, the driving of piles for the temporary bridge across Rock River and the work of digging trenches on the rifle range.

MADE TO HUMOR FARMERS
CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The left-handed plow is manufactured simply to humor a temperamental class of farmers, H. B. Dineen of Moline, Ill., told the National Implement and Vehicle Association here today.

"The left-hand plow will do nothing more than the ordinary plow," he said. "It is simply a case of mental preference of the farmer and to meet this desire we must manufacture sixty more kinds of plows. It's a waste of time, labor and mats."

FOOD ROBBERS LOOT GROCERY STORES

AURORA, Ill., Oct. 19.—The cry for food was brought home to well fed farming folk in striking fashion last night by automobile robbers who raced from one Kendall county village to another plundering grocery stores while passing up cash registers. The robbers drove a big truck and made stops at general stores in Millington, Newark, Lisbon and Helena, about 20 miles south of here. Sheriffs and police of half a dozen counties of this section are scouring the countryside for the food raiders who have disappeared as utterly as though the earth had opened and swallowed them up.

STATE FEDERATION OF LABOR ADJOURNS

JOLIET, Ill., Oct. 19.—Denying the allegations of "certain interests" opposed to Union labor that the workers' organizations had incited the race riots in East St. Louis and Springfield, the state federation of labor today adopted resolutions urging the organization of every negro worker in the country. Bloomington was chosen for the 1918 convention.

CHICAGO COUNCIL REFUSES TO SANCTION SALE OF HORSE MEAT

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Chicago aldermen have refused to give official sanction to the sale of horse meat, the city council's health committee having decided to turn down a proposal to legalize its appearance on restaurant menus.

War News Summarized

The American army Transport Antilles has been attacked and sunk by a German submarine with the loss of about seventy lives—the second American vessel the Germans have torpedoed during the past week, and on succeeding days. The other craft was a torpedo boat destroyer, which suffered a loss of one life and five men injured.

Both vessels were attacked within the war zone, the destroyer last Tuesday and the transport the following day. The destroyer made port altho severely damaged, but the transport sank within five minutes after a torpedo from an unseen submarine struck her abreast of the engine room bulkhead.

The Antilles, homeward bound, presumably from a French port where probably she had debarked troops and stores had 227 persons aboard, among them navy and army officers and some 33 enlisted men of the army. All the officers were saved, but sixteen of the soldiers and three of the ship's officers perished. The remainder of the dead belonged to the crew of the transport.

The torpedo of the submarine found its mark against the side of the transport notwithstanding the fact that the transport was being convoyed by vessels of the American patrol. The officers of the army and navy and the enlisted men on board were returning to the United States on special assignments or possibly invalided or discharged from the service.

Singularly reticent is the German war office in its latest official communication with regard to operation of the German naval forces against the Russian squadron which is presumed to be bottled up in Moon Sound, merely dealing with the naval battle which resulted in the sinking of the Russian Battleship Slava. Likewise the most recent communication from Petrograd gives few further details of the situation. From this latter communication however, the fact is gleaned that the Germans at noon Wednesday began landing troops on Daso Island which lies directly north of Gessel Island, after a bombardment and that the German naval units engaged in the conquest of the three islands and in attempting to destroy the Russian fleet comprise at least ten of the new dreadnaughts, about ten cruisers, not less than fifty torpedo boat destroyers and between 8 and 10 submarines. In addition a large number of trawlers and other auxiliaries and hydro-airplanes and other aircraft are working with the enemy.

Two German torpedo boats have been destroyed while running through the mine field in Moon Sound, according to a Petrograd despatch and that the German naval units engaged in the conquest of the three islands and in attempting to destroy the Russian fleet comprise at least ten of the new dreadnaughts, about ten cruisers, not less than fifty torpedo boat destroyers and between 8 and 10 submarines. In addition a large number of trawlers and other auxiliaries and hydro-airplanes and other aircraft are working with the enemy.

NO CHANGE IN CONDITION OF BOB FITZSIMMONS

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Robert Fitzsimmons, former heavyweight pugilist who has been dangerously ill of lobar pneumonia at a hospital here for several days, was reported tonight as "in the same condition he has been since arrival at the hospital." While physicians said he was conscious at a late hour tonight, his chances for recovery were not improved. The vitality of the veteran was pronounced remarkable, lobar pneumonia being pronounced the most serious form of that disease.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons who had been at her husband's bedside constantly, was ordered to bed by physicians today as she was on the verge of collapse. Tonight it was reported she had returned to her vigil.

HUNS LAUNCH ANOTHER AIR RAID ON ENGLAND

Hostile Airships Attack Eastern and Northeastern Coast and Proceed Some Distance Inland

USUAL SCENES IN LONDON

Subways and Shelters are Soon Filled With People—Defense Guns Prevent Raiders from Reaching London District.

London, Oct. 20.—At midnight six or seven airships raided the eastern and northeastern counties of England, dropping bombs at various points, including a few in the London area, according to an official statement just issued. At this hour the raid is still proceeding.

The following official communication was issued:

"Hostile airships attacked the eastern and northeastern coast this evening. The enemy aircraft proceeded some distance inland over these counties but did not carry out any very definite attack. Six or seven raiders took part in raid and bombs have been dropped at various points, including a few in the London area. The raid is still in progress."

People Scurry for Shelter

There were the customary scenes in London. The people hurried to the subways and other shelters which were soon filled. The omnibuses, however, continued running.

After the warning was sounded very distant roars of guns were heard for a few minutes. The searchlights were in action but no hostile aircraft was seen. It is evident the raiders were prevented from reaching the London district.

GERMAN RATIONS REPORTED SHORT

Alleged to Be Insufficient to Maintain Health and Vigor.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Rations now allowed the German people and the civilian population of the occupied portions of northern France and Belgium, details of which have just reached the food administration are insufficient to maintain bodily health and vigor. The French and Belgians get considerably less than the amount apportioned to the German population and they get no meat except bacon.

As announced today by the food administration the weekly ration to the Germans standing in terms of American housekeeping amounts to sufficient flour to bake 4½ pounds of bread; one-half peck of potatoes; one cupful each of beans, peas and oatmeal; one-half pound of meat, 12 dominoes of sugar, six individual patties of butter and an equal amount of other fats.

In northern France the weekly ration allows sufficient flour for five pounds of bread; one-fifth of a peck of potatoes; one cupful of cereals, 12-13 ounces of bacon and lard, and ten dominoes of sugar. Here meat, butter and margarine are all replaced by bacon and lard. The allowance of flour and cereals are slightly increased, but the allowance of potatoes is less than half of the German ration, while the allowance of sugar also is reduced.

MANY SCHOOLS CLOSE; LACK OF TEACHERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—War has drawn on the nation's teaching force to such an extent that schools are closing in an alarming rate, according to Dr. M. L. Prentiss, head immigration inspector and chief of local division of the government bureau of employment. He has sent letters to branch employment agencies throughout the country appealing for men and women educators. Thirty-five percent of the country's teachers, he estimates, either have enlisted or have been drafted since July 1. It has been found almost impossible to get teachers for rural schools.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 19.—Twenty men were held to trial on October 29 for the alleged violation of a federal injunction against interference with the operation of the plant of the St. Louis Smelting and Refining company, at Collinsville, by United States Judge J. Otis Humphrey here today. The men were released on $1,000 bond except today. Joe Walker who was unable to furnish security.

Threat Fails to Produce Desired Results

GOVERNMENT BUYS MEXICAN SILVER PESOS

Will Be Minted Into American Coin

Price of Silver in U. S. Drops Rapidly in Last Few Weeks—Collapse of Quotation from $1.15 to 85c Per Ounce Will Be Investigated.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Six million Mexican silver Pesos have been bought by the treasury department at 88½ cents a piece for minting into half dollars, dimes and quarters. The treasury acted when faced with the necessity of buying silver for coinage at steadily increasing prices which at their height brought the value of the metal dangerously close to the minted value.

Now the price of silver in this country has dropped precipitately. The swift collapse, from $1.15 to eighty-five cents per ounce within three weeks has resulted in an investigation to determine whether the market had been manipulated. The high prices recently prevailing are regarded as wholly unwarranted by officials here.

The purchase of the great volume of Mexican dollars, the largest purchase by the government of the minted silver coin of another country ever recorded, places the United States in possession of a sufficient quantity of silver to run the mints for two or three months and withdraws from the silver market here the largest single buyer.

Negotiations have been proceeding between representatives of the Carranza government and Director Baker of the mint, for some time for the big sale. It is understood that the Mexican dollars are to be delivered soon and federal reserve officials who have been in touch with the various phases of the negotiations have indicated their willingness to permit exportation to Mexico of approximately $5,000,000 in gold as payment.

In return the Carranza government is understood to have lifted its virtual embargo on exportation to this country of silver and copper and that these and other commodities, needed here soon will be crossing the international line freely.

Mexico needs the gold badly to increase its scanty store of minted gold coin. The importation by that country of $5,000,000 for this purpose is assumed, also will tend to relieve the difficulties of American operators in the oil fields there, as their taxes must be paid in Mexican minted gold.

The net result of the transaction as viewed by officials here is that the danger of par silver for mintage has been averted, that Mexico will be in a stronger position financially than before, that the somewhat strained financial relations between the two countries will be eased perceptibly and that Mexican copper and silver, needed here, will be available in the future.

The imposition by the American government of a virtual embargo on the exportation of silver also contributed largely to the sudden lowering of silver prices in the domestic market.

UNION MAY OUST STRIKING MINERS FOR DISOBEDIENCE

Farrington Issues Ultimatum in Vain—Demands Must Be Met Before Strike is Settled

TO HOLD MEETINGS TODAY

Miners Will Meet at Various Points to Decide When to Resume Work—Garfield Asserts Government Cannot Be Coerced by Strikes.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 19.—Today I fled to signalize the return to work of more than a handful of Illinois miners who walked out early in the week to force an increase in wages.

Fuel Administrator Harry Garfield has declared production of coal must not stop, and Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Miners, went further today and said miners' locals in the state which were not back to work by Monday would be ousted from the state organization.

Meetings are called for tomorrow at various points throughout the state when miners will decide whether work shall be resumed before wage increases are allowed. Advances in pay will not be forthcoming operators insist unless the fuel administration permits them to charge more for coal. Dr. Garfield, moreover, has said the government cannot be coerced by strikes to allow an increase in coal prices.

Peoria Miners Return.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Despite the threat of Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Mine Workers Union to oust any striking miner from that organization who did not immediately return to work, it was predicted here today that the coal strike would not be settled until the fuel administration permitted a higher price schedule so that the operators might meet the miners' demands. A despatch from Peoria stated 400 miners returned to work this morning in that district. The miners said that they had not been actually on-strike, but had suspended work pending the outcome of the trouble in the Springfield district.

A report by D. W. Buchanan of the Illinois Coal Operators' association showed that miners had returned to work around Virden, Thayer, Auburn, Athens and Andrew, Illinois and in the potato fields of Indiana. A despatch from Toluca, Ill., the first trouble in the northern part of the state; the United States Steel company's mines at Benton and the Madison coal corporation at Glen Carbon, Mr. Buchanan figured the loss to about 159,000 tons daily in Illinois alone.

The situation in Chicago became more critical today as the temperature shot downward toward the freezing mark. Fred W. Upham, president of the Consumers company announced that his company would be without coal within five days and that no new orders were being accepted. Hospitals will be unable to get coal after next week was his statement after a talk with other dealers. The department stores are fortunate in having about two weeks coal supply in various yards. Other loop buildings appear to be in desperate straits.

Attempt to Relieve Shortage.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Several moves were made by the government today to relieve coal shortages. To meet the situation in New England, the shipping board ordered owners of all coal carrying steamers, requisitioned by the government to continue in their present service and fixed a uniform rate of $2.50 per cargo ton from Hampton Roads or Philadelphia to Boston with differentials to other New England ports.

At the same time the fuel administration, finding plenty of coal and plenty of vessels for the New England trade but lack of docking and pier facilities, summoned the presidents of the Chesapeake & Ohio, Norfolk and Western and the Virginian railroads to a conference here next Tuesday to work out a plan to unblock out to vessels for loading and stream.

Fuel Administrator Garfield directed mines serving the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to give priority to that road's fuel requirements over all other orders. Similar orders in favor of the Pennsylvania system already are in effect and Dr. Garfield said tonight the policy soon would be

Will Petrograd again become St.
Petersburg if in German possession?

President Wilson asks New York
to disregard the silly activity of women pickets about the White House
when they go to the polls to decide on the woman's suffrage question.

The losses and sufferings of Serbia by the war are colossal. She had a population of 4,500,000 at its beginning. Now one-third of it, or 1,500,000, are actually dead from wounds, hardship, starvation and disease, while several hundred thousand have been deported as slaves
to Austria, Germany and Turkey and this is only one of the many crimes

the kaiser must answer for.

The new pension law which went into effect this month, raises the rate of pensions to all on the pension
rolls to $25 per month, but does not affect any special allowance now in effect. Those who are getting less than $25 per month will receive the raise. It means considerable to many old soldiers and widows during these times of high prices to get the extra allowance.

ONE IN ONE HUNDRED.

There has been great out-cry regarding the scarcity of artisans and laborers, and in many cases the reason has been given that "so many men have been called into service."
But has it ever occurred to you that
not a great percentage of our people have as yet been called into active service, that hardly one in one hundred of our population is in camp
or trench? They should be proud that they count for so much, that they are so keenly missed. How will it be after the next call?

RECOUNT ORDERED.

The Iowa bone dry law is yet in the balance, and it will probably need the official report of a recount
of the vote of the state before we can be sure of the verdict.

Unofficial returns give the "wets"
an advantage of approximately 1000,
with a total vote of 430,000. Leaders of the "dry" faction reiterated
that an official canvass would of necessity be made because of the small margin given the "wets". In some quarters it is believed the official count may yet change the final result.

AN AUXILIARY ROUTE.

Government has reached the point
of deciding to expend $3,500,000 to finance construction of twenty-four steel barges and four towboats, as an aid to more rapid movements of commerce along the Mississippi river.
The movement will be more rapid,
as a result, for the simple reason that present freight congestions along railway lines make it impossible to keep traffic moving as rapidly as it can be made to move by using the water as an auxiliary.

SAFELY ACROSS.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels calls attention to a fact of some importance. He mentions that this country has sent more than 100,000
fighting men to France, and not a man lost on the journey over.

So far as it goes this is like the record Canadians made. They sent more than a half million men across
the sea, and on the water journey
they did not lose a man.

Only a short while since some folks were running around in this country to whisper that we couldn't hope to get troops to Europe, that the German U-boats would destroy them on the way over.

FROM THE HEART.

"Do the soldiers at the front ever pray?" The question was asked by a preacher at a ministers' meeting in a Canadian city. This is the story a returned army chaplain told in reply:

"One of the boys had been given dispatches to carry over a road exposed to the enemy fire. He stood by his motorcycle ready to start. He knew well the danger he must ride
through the slim chances of escape.
Looking ahead and unheeding bystanders, he exclaimed: 'O God, I don't give a damn for myself, but for England's sake help me thru.'"

The spirit of the prayer is the spirit that must inspire every man who gets a clear vision of what this war means.

TAX ON OLEO.

The commissioner of health of New York is thoroughly in favor of removing the tax on oleomargarine.
He says that as butter is never an exclusive article of diet and as milk
or vegetables and fruit in the general
diet of children and adults contain
the substances other than fats which butter has and oleomargarine has not, there is no disadvantage from the point of caloric or of other food ingredients in replacing butter by oleomargarine in table use and cooking for children and adults, the Bloomington Pantagraph thinks.
There was never any sound reason for the levying of a tax on the manufacture of oleomargarine, which has a real food value, and in the matter
of purity can more than hold its own
with butter. Oleomargarine is now selling at about double its normal
price, but it is still cheaper than butter. If the tax was removed it could be sold at a much lower price.
The government tax on oleomargarine is unjustifiable with prices of all food commodities at their present
high level.

A LETTER FROM HOME.

Stay-at-homes can do a good work
by writing letters to friends and acquaintances now in the army trenches or camps. There are many Jacksonville or Morgan county men in the camps who would be pleased to receive a cheerful letter from a friend.
They have been away from home
long enough now to begin to long
for some word from the home folks.
Don't make any difference whether you are a relative or not. In fact it is more unexpected and perhaps more appreciated if a letter
from just a friend or acquaintance were received now and then. Ever notice that the letters from the boys
published in the papers always wind
up by asking why the recipient does not write oftener? A week without a letter gets some fellows pretty homesick. Don't forget to write.

THE MANY CALLS.

In this day of numerous "campaigns" for money the "generous contributor," who in the past has felt
a sense of satisfaction, need no longer fear exposure of his generosity. He will not be praised or congratulated for having done a good act. He must learn to give—as a matter of course.
For never has the call for giving been so frequently. Many causes presented are very worthy, and we have reason to believe contributions will be wisely administered. Study
the cause, be sure it is a worthy one
—then give freely.

As a matter of fact, we are only
getting our initiation into the art and happiness of benefaction. The demands will be heavier as days pass.
They will call, not for the spare dollar, but for the dollar that means we must do without in order to give it.

This is said by the Chicago Post to be the most exhilarating form of the exercise of giving. We will feel the real tingle of joy when we are putting aside convenience, comfort,
pleasure and profit in order that we may have the more for those who need our aid or who are risking life itself for our protection. There are not a few who graduated into this class long since. Go ask them if they ever found greater satisfaction in any other form of indulgence.

SACRED CATTLE ON THE MARKET.

Four car loads of sacred Brahma
steers from a ranch at Laredo, Tex.,
arrived at the National Stock Yards
recently.

The herd originally belonged to
Guy Barton, son-in-law of Shanghai Pierce, who at one time was the largest operator of marketable cattle in the state of Texas. Barton nearly a quarter of a century ago
made a trip to India to secure the bulls. He purchased two cars of them under the condition that they were not to be slaughtered, as the Hindu people held some superstition
concerning the killing of the sacred bull.

Upon their arrival in New York
government authorities held them

there several weeks under inspection
for fear that the animals from the orient would spread some new disease in this country. The steers sold in East St. Louis were a cross between the sacred bulls and the native
Texas cows. For the past five years
few of them have been coming to market and the animals were held on the ranches for the purpose of rebuilding the herd. There are at present several thousand Brahmas in the southern part of Texas and practically all of them are owned by the King Ranch people.

OUT OF DEFEAT
COMES VICTORY.

Jacksonville was honored yesterday by the visit of William Jennings Bryan. Tho the history of Jacksonville contains many great names,
there is no question but that Mr.
Bryan is the most distinguished citizen Jacksonville ever sent forth
from her doors.

It has been given to few men to experience life as Mr. Bryan. His early days were filled with struggle.
Yet, as he told his auditors yesterday,
his ambition to be a lawyer he kept
ever before him and the goal was finally reached.

The most remarkable thing about
Mr. Bryan is his hold upon the people.
Few men have experienced the reverses that have come to him in political life. In other things Mr.
Bryan has been signally successful.
But except for one term in congress,
when, as he himself said, he went in
thru a democratic landslide, defeat
has been his portion in every attempt
for political preferment.

Thrice Mr. Bryan was defeated for the presidency, the greatest office in the gift of the people. It is true that he made President Wilson's election
possible by swinging the nomination
to him at the Baltimore convention.
Yet Mr. Bryan quit under fire when he was secretary of state in President
Wilson's cabinet.

But despite his defeat for office,
despite his attitude in the Wilson
cabinet which temporarily lost him
some of his great prestige, Mr. Bryan by his present support of the government has again won back his following. So today William Jennings Bryan stands out as the world's greatest private citizen, and to him
out of defeat has come victory.

FIRST BLOOD
FOR GERMANY.

With the news received late last night of the sinking of the first American transport by an enemy submarine, the heavy hand of war is felt by this country, in some small measure, for the first time. The only circumstance for which the people of the United States can be thankful, in regard to the sinking of the Transport Antilles, is that the vessel was homeward bound. Had the torpedo found its mark with the ship bound for "some port in France" the casualty list would have without doubt have run into three figures. At it was the transport had 237 passengers, among them navy and army officers and some thirty-three enlisted men of the army. All of the officers and seventeen of the enlisted men were saved. Sixteen of our soldier boys, returning home on sick leave or special assignments and three of the ship's officers perished. The remainder of the dead, estimated at seventy lives, belonged to the crew of the transport.

The happening marks the first success for a German U-boat in an attack on a transport belonging to this country. It is first blood for Germany.

General Pershing in a cable to this country yesterday in the interest of the Liberty Loan, stated, "We are going to win this war."

But nobody expects to annihilate
Germany. Few people want to see her annihilated. Nobody wants to crush her, except as a military menace. But she must be defeated so decisively in this war that she will keep the peace hereafter, and to make sure that she does so her power
to repeat her offense must be destroyed.

And—most important of all—the German people must have learned that the militaristic policy of their war lords does not pay.

Another dispatch, received at an early hour this Saturday morning,
tells of another airplane raid on the city of London. These raids have not been frequent of late on account of there being no moon. Some moonlight is necessary in order for the Germans to undertake the air flights
over enemy territory.

CHEER UP!

Cheer up, cheer up! If you are sore, no sign of illness giving, you have no right to paw around about the coast of living. No man has any right to sport, or let tears run in rivers, unless we know that he is short some legs and arms and livers.
Cheer up! Tho it is quite a chore
to stock the bin and larder, a gloomy
mug won't bring you more—just buckle down the harder. Cheer up!
The prices make you yell, when you go forth as buyer, but when you've anything to sell, the price keeps going higher. I sell my labor every day for quite a roll of dollars; what matter, then, if I must pay high price for shirts and collars? My father got a lot more flour than I do for a shilling, but I earn more
in half an hour than he by all day's drilling. Cheer up! There's work or every lad, success for him who pushes; the hustler finds the shining scud is growing on the bushes. Cut out the worries and alarms, toll like
the bees that bumble the man who has no legs or arms alone has right
to grumble.

TO NEW QUARTERS

SIX UNITS OF THE OLD FIFTH REGIMENT GO TO NEW QUARTERS.

A Morgan County Man Writes of the Artillery Service.

A correspondent of the Quincy Journal has the following regarding the final act in the passing from regimental organization of the old-
time Fifth Illinois:

The Fifth Infantry has struck its colors for the first and last time, not in surrender, but in resignation to the inevitable. Tuesday night at retreat, while the band played the Star Spangled Banner, the national and regimental flags of the regiment
were furled and the flags were returned to the quartermaster department. The color rack of the regiment in front of Colonel Woods tent was bare of silk and bunting. Half of the camp site of what had been
the Fifth Infantry was bare of tents,
six of the 15 units had moved to their quarters in other parts of camp to take up their new work in the division motor truck, wagon and military police trains. Only companies C, D, E, F, G, I, K, L and the Machine Gun company remaining.

These were shifting locations so as to line up properly the three machine gun battalions into which they are transferred. While gangs of brown clad men carried cots, chairs and
all manner of equipment to and fro.
Colonel Wood, whose fight for the regiment is at an end so far as the army is concerned, sat silent in his tent. Charges were expected to be filed against Colonel Wood for his attack on the motives of his superior officer, Brigadier General Hill, in breaking up the Fifth, but no such action was taken. Brigadier General Todd, commanding the division,
may choose to drop the case, assigning Colonel Wood's attack to his loyalty to his regiment. This is the feeling of the division and the division would be glad to see the matter
end thus.

The Artillery Service.

Harry G. Beauchamp, of Merodosa, now in the artillery service
at Houston, Arizona, writes very interestingly of the service there:

We have reveille at 6:20 in the morning followed by a fifteen minute physical exercise. Breakfast at 7:00 followed by an hour's infantry drill from 7:30 to 8:30. At 8:40 we go to the stables and groom and harness our teams and hitch in to the carriages. We have eight head of horses on each carriage with four drivers. There are eighteen horses and eighteen men to each section and nine sections to the battery. We have six batteries, a headquarters
company, a supply company and
band in the regiment.

We have battery drill from 9:00
until 11:00. Then we feed and groom our horses until mess, which comes at twelve sharp the most of the time. The first call after dinner comes at 1:30 when we usually have a lecture, followed by gun
drill for half of the battery and the other half goes out for riding exercise. At four we water and feed out again and then have retreat at 5 o'clock followed by supper. Then our day's work is done unless we happen to be on guard.

We have two kinds of guard duty to do here. One is guard around the camp and stables and the other is out post guard which I like by far the best. We have three posts to guard when we are at the border
one is the international gate, the orange store, house and the Commissary Dept., which are just a short distance from the border and the tent I am in is just barely a quarter
of a mile away from it.

We had regimental review today
and the whole regiment drilled together and passed in review before our Colonel. It was sure some sight
too, as there were two Artillery Regiments of troops in the line, and they sure made some sight as they passed by. Next Tuesday we get our final inspection and review by the Commander of the Southern Department. There will be about five or six regiments of troops in the line,
both white and colored as we have
one regiment of negro troops here.
We have expected to leave here
most any time now. As we have received in the last few days all of our winter clothing and extra blankets,
and we don't use them down here as it never gets that cold. We have had just six inspections in the last week one for each day so we are sure that there is something up. One of the boys got a letter from one of our friends in France and he says that they hear that we will join our sister regiments there before Thanksgiving and it sure will be a happy
 bunch of lads when we get to go to France for we are all working with
that aim in view, believe me.

I sure hope that the boys that have been called for the New National army get good officers for they are going to get some drilling,
for sure. And there are going to be some mighty surprised boys to believe me, as the most of them will find out that army life is not what they pictured and especially the artillery, as it is the hardest branch
of it all, as they have all or most of the infantry and cavalry drills in addition to their own and I think that the most of them will like it atter they have been in it a while.

I sure do like the work, though at present we have hardly a minute
that we can call our own.

This regiment here is made up mostly of Illinois and Pennsylvania
boys so I am pretty well at home.
Sgt. Carl Staben was transferred to the 38th F. A. at Des Moines, Ia., where he is acting as instructor.

THOMAS HARDWICK
PIONEER CITIZEN

Member of Well Known Scott County Family Remarkably Well Preserved at 84 Years—Family One That Helped Make Early History
of Scott County.

Among the prominent families of Scott county is that of the Hardwick name, known far and wide and very favorably. The present representative of the family is Thomas Hardwick, who was born near Winchester, April 11, 1833, the son of George and Martha Edmondson
Hardwick. They came from Clark county, Ky., at an early day and settled the winter of the deep snow,
two miles west of Winchester. The father died in 1881 and the mother
in 1844. The father married again,
this time to Miss Louisa Kennedy Clark, who was the mother of three children, one of whom, John Hardwick, a half-brother of Thomas,
lives. Thomas Hardwick was married Feb. 16, 1864 to Miss Sarah
Clark of Scott county, and she died
Oct. 18, 1900. Mr. Hardwick's children are George, who lives on the home place; Mattie, Mrs. Ed
Leach of Scott county; Mary Lou,
Mrs. Wiseman of Alto, and Sallie,
Mrs. R. W. Simpson of Peoria whose husband is the Adams express agent at that place.

After Mr. Hardwick's marriage he moved to his present home and bought 200 acres of land and by judicious management and industry he has acquired a little patch of 984 acres. Five hundred acres are at the home place; 240 just south and 244
northwest. He has 11 grandchildren, 5 boys and 6 girls, the latest arrival being a son in George's family
and named Thomas M. for his grandfather. Mr. Hardwick has held a few offices in his life, altho he has not been a seeker for notoriety. He has been school director, township
treasurer and for thirty years was postmaster at Merritt but finally resigned not wishing to have it longer. He is also a worthy member of the Masonic fraternity and of the Baptist church at Winchester. He has been a life long Republican and has done much for the cause of the party in his county and altho Scott
county is reckoned in the list as hopelessly and largely Democratic, at the same time the Republicans right
now have the sheriff, the county superintendent of schools, the assessor
and treasurer and the county clerk.
Mr. Hardwick's father was in the Black Hawk war and served faithfully his time there. Mr. Hardwick himself was a good friend of Abraham Lincoln and often heard that great man speak and says in his earlier days he felt that there was something unusual in the quaint,

tall, angular man, as he showed the genius that was in him, and when he rose to his exalted position it afforded Mr. Hardwick immense pleasure to know that he had been his friend and faithful assistant. In the campaign of 1860 Mr. Hardwick was a member of the far-famed Wide Awake organization and carried his torch along with the others of the boys, and they exerted no small influence in the election which went so favorably to the country at that time.

Mr. Hardwick retired from active life some time ago and his children are managing his large estate. He himself has become quite a rover.
Altho well advanced in years he is still hearty and strong and greatly enjoys seeing different parts of the world and spends really more time away than at home, altho that young grandson is a prime attraction and
the old gentleman may stay with him for some time to come. Altho so well along toward ninety years of age, his family hope he will be with them for a long time to come.

BANK RESOURCES
EXCEED RECORDTotal Resources of National Banks
Sept. 11, Were $16,543,000,000.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Resources of national banks, notwithstanding the government's great program of war financing again have exceeded their previous record of strength. Comptroller Williams announced tonight that total resources on September 11, the date of the last bank call were $16,543,000,000.

"If $5,000,000,000 of deposits should be withdrawn from the national banks of the country," the comptroller said, "their deposits would still be $286,000,000 greater than they were at this time in 1913, the year before the outbreak of the European war. It is also significant that while the national banks of the country have assisted so largely in the financing of the first liberty loan involving to a certain extent the withdrawal of deposits, their deposits as compared with May 1 last, before the liberty loan was announced show an actual increase of $154,000,000.

"Deposits are $1,872,000,000 greater than on Sept. 12, 1916."

Total deposits are given as $13,234,000,000. These figures include only national banks and are independent of savings banks, trust companies and other similar institutions.

SPEAKS AT ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 19.—Secretary of Commerce Redfield in an address for the liberty loan here today said the war with Germany was a spiritual war and that the United States had entered the struggle with full knowledge of its responsibilities in answer to the cry of mankind.

"Out of the ruck of this war is coming a spiritual regeneration of the world and we must have our share in this glorious work, in the great contest against intrigue and iniquity in high places," he declared. "It is a purely spiritual struggle and we stand unitedly to say that the evil system that brought all this desolation into the world shall be destroyed."

"If we are to be successful we must all pull together. We must be one. Our industrial, scientific, social and financial activities must be mobilized. If we provide less bonds then we must provide more blood."

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Every up-to-date school in the Upper East Side and the Bronx which has been damaged during riots of pupils and parents opposed to the Gary system of instruction, was today being guarded by extra details of police to prevent further destruction of school property.

Riots of school children in the Bronx kept the police busy all yesterday and last night. Many children were arrested for rioting, scores of windows in public schools 50 and 54, where the duplicate system is under trial and which were the centers of disturbances were broken.

SUGGEST USE OF COLD STORAGE EGGS IN ARMY

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The use of cold storage eggs as army rations will be suggested to the government, it was learned today, by representatives of the butter and egg exchanges of Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and New York and the mercantile exchange of New York. A committee plans to go to Washington with the suggestion that the federal food officials fix a price which would be on the usual basis of cost plus ten percent.

Chicago packers are said to own millions of cold storage eggs for which there is no demand because the supply today greatly exceeds that which existed at the time the eggs were put aside. The holdings are said to be 13.2 percent greater than a year ago while the market value is considerably less than when they were stored. Wholesalers are said to be facing millions of dollars in losses unless a cost plus ten percent price is fixed arbitrarily. Making these eggs an army ration, it is believed would take care of the oversupply.

TORPEDOED BY GERMAN
U-BOAT IN WAR ZONE

from Admiral Sims the government kept its promise not to withhold bad news from the public. The issuance of the statement was delayed only until the navy could telegraph to the families of the men known to have been lost.

Secretary Daniels carried word of the loss of the Antilles to the white house when he went there late in the day with Admiral Mayo, who made his report to President Wilson on his visit to England at the direction of the president.

The news added to the gravity of the hour the secretary and Admiral Mayo spent in conference with the president.

Quick on the wave of sorrow at the news of the loss of the transport came a feeling of distinct relief because she had met her fate home-ward bound, not on her way over with troops. The only soldiers on board were returning to the hospital or on special assignment. Had the full complement of the transport been aboard the loss undoubtedly would have been hundreds as she was struck in the most vulnerable spot and went under so swiftly that few could have escaped.

Officials are confident that those who survived owe their lives to the careful attention given by the navy department to equipping of transports with life boats and life rafts. It is a fixed rule that enough boats and rafts shall be carried to afford a place for every man aboard, even tho the ship keel over and put half her boats out of commission.

The loss of the ship's engineer officers indicates the probability that no one of the engine and fire room forces on duty escaped. Probably most of them died in the blast of the explosion of the torpedo which tore its way into the engine room compartments.

The heavy loss among the army enlisted men indicated cannot be accounted for until further details come in. Probably they and the navy men were in their quarters below and could not make their way on deck before the ship took her final plunge. The army, navy and ship's officers and the others who were rescued probably were on deck or in cabins from which a step took them to the deck and a chance for their lives.

Lacking details of the attack, beyond the fact that the submarine was unseen and the first warning to those aboard the Antilles came with the shock of the explosion of the torpedo, how the U-boat crept thru the destroyer screen, did its work and escaped unchallenged.

A majority of the officers who would comment thought the transport and her conveying patrols had run directly over a lurking submarine which saw them coming, calculated the distance and launched her deadly torpedo without ever showing more than her periscope. They regard it as probable that the U-boat commander picked his place, lay in wait below the surface until his microphones told him the passed and the transport was upon him, then shot his periscope above water only long enough to fire and then ducked back to safety. Any attempt to locate the submarine probably was made impossible by the necessity of rescuing the survivors. The vessel must have been virtually torn in half by the explosion to have gone down in the time she did.

Probably the attack was made well out to sea. It took two days for the news to reach Washington and the dispatch shows the time that must have elapsed before definite word could reach Admiral Sims. The survivors are believed to be already safe ashore somewhere in France or England.

No High Officers Aboard.

So far as known no high officers of the army or navy were due to return on the Antilles. There is no definite information on that point, however as only General Pershing knows who has sent home on leave. The reports so far received show merely that a number of army officers and 33 enlisted men of the army were aboard. Evidently Admiral Sims rushed his tidings off before he communicated with General Pershing.

The loss of the Antilles marks the first reduction of the transport fleet that has been operating. A very considerable number of American troops, workmen, and other war have been in the prosecution of the war and England and the unsuccessful attack on the first contingent is the only recorded previous instance where the U-boats have succeeded even in catching sight of the vessels.

Was One of Crack Coast Liners.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Antilles, a freight and passenger steamship of 6,878 tons gross, owned by the Southern Pacific Steamship company (Morgan Line) was one of the crack American coast liners. She plied between New Orleans and New York and had carried thousands of persons to the Mardi Gras celebration in the southern city. The vessel was taken over by the government as a transport early in the war.

Captain H. P. Boyde, master of the Antilles, retained his command when the vessel entered the government service as did most of his officers. The crew as recruited by the quartermaster's department included many of the men who had served on the steamship when she was in the merchant service. The Antilles was built by the Cramp & Philadelphia in 1907. She was 341 feet long with a beam of 53 feet and depth of 37 feet.

Made Trip to Genoa.

The Antilles was with-own from the coast-wise trade temporarily in September, 1914, to make a trip to Genoa, Italy, to bring home about 400 Americans who had been stranded extended to other lines as the railroads cannot be expected to carry coal or other freights without adequate supplies of fuel.

Dr. Garfield said the administration expected soon to issue an order confining coal cars to coal trade exceptions and to compel the return of empty cars to the originating line.

FIGHT FOR YOUR LIFE

Duty Demands Robust Health

Fight to get it and keep it

Fight—fight day in and day out to prevent being overtaken by ill and ails. Keep wrinkles from marring the cheek and the body from losing its youthful appearance and buoyancy. Fight when ill-health is coming with its pallor and pains, defects and declining powers. Fight to stay its course and drive it off.

But fight intelligently. Don't fight without weapons that can win the day for without the intelligent use of effective weapons the pallor spreads and weakness grows and a seemingly strong man or woman oftentimes becomes a prey to ill after all.

You will not find this class of persons in the hypoferrin ranks. No unhealthy, dull, draggy, droopy persons in that line. It is a hale, hearty, robust aggregation of quick-stoppers who view life in a joyous frame of mind and are mentally and physically equal to any emergency. Hypoferrin stands for sound body and sound mind—it is the invigorating tonic of the times—powerful and unsurpassed as a health restorer, vitalizer and health preserver.

Fight to hold the vigor of a sound body with hypoferrin or to stay the process of decay and restore health and strength—you win. This tonic of amazing, wonder-working properties has been approved by physicians as a restorer and safeguard of health. It is a thoroughly scientific preparation of the very elements necessary to tone up the stomach and nerves, to build strong, vital tissue, make pure blood, firm flesh and solid, active, tireless muscles.

Hypoferrin contains those mighty strength-producing agents, lecithin and iron peptonate, in a form best adapted to benefit the body and its organs. Its ingredients are absolutely necessary to the blood. In nine cases out of ten a run-down condition, pallor, pale complexion that "tell in" feeling and frail bodies are due to lack of lecithin and iron peptonate in the system.

Your mental and physical strength and endurance depends upon a lecithin and iron peptonate laden blood; steady, dependable nerves and a healthy stomach. With these you can meet life at any angle.

This wonder tonic, hypoferrin, which is as perfect as science can get to nature, meets every essential demand of the human organism. It is safe and sure and a boon to run-down, worn-out men and women. Hypoferrin means nature's own way of bringing color to the cheeks, strength to the body and keeping the vigor and buoyancy of youth. The powder and paint way of effecting beauty is not needed by hypoferrin. It gives the girls, their blood, filled with nature's beauty stores, creates conditions that give firmness and grace to the body and the glow of health to the cheeks.

No need of going through life sickly and always feeling miserable in this age of medical science. Join the hypoferrin ranks. It puts into you the springy snap and vigor you ought to have and puts life into your body and mind that inspires the confidence that you confront the world on an equal footing with anyone.

Hypoferrin may be had at your druggist or direct from us for $1.60 per package. It is well worth the price. The Sautane Remedies Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Michigan Lady Suffered Such Pains

Cardui Stopped These Bad Spells.

Palmyra, Mich.—Mrs. Chas. T. Fuller, of this place, writes: "In 1911 I got run-down, and I suffered great pain...with both dull and sharp shooting pains...also back and head. I was weak and could only drag around, and should have been in bed for I really wasn't able to be up. At times I would have spells that would be so bad I'd have to go to bed, and suffered intensely..."

I decided to try Cardui, and saw a great improvement in less than a month's time. I used 7 or 8 bottles and was stronger...I got so much better that my strength returned and my work was easy for me. Cardui did me a world of good. It built me up in health and strength. I haven't had one of those bad spells since. I haven't had to take any more medicine since or have any doctors either and have been able to do my work right along...I recommend it to other women highly as the best medicine I know of for women who suffer from female troubles."

If you suffer from female troubles, follow this advice. Get a bottle of Cardui today and give it a thorough trial. It should help you, as it has helped thousands of other women in the past 40 years. At all druggists.

"FUNDAMENTALS" WAS THEME OF WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

Great Commoner Principal Speaker At Founder's Day of Woman's College

Discusses Man's Relation to Government, Society and God—Predicts World Democracy — Urges Equal Suffrage for Women and Nation-Wide Prohibition—Interesting Program Given Friday Morning—President Adams' Alumnae Scholarship Fund of $5,000 Completed.

"World Democracy will not be complete until woman is allowed to share in full, with man, its blessings and responsibilities." This thought was expressed by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in an address delivered in Music Hall of Illinois Woman's college at the Ninth Annual Commemoration of Founder's Day of the institution Friday afternoon.

An audience that completely filled the main floor and balcony of the auditorium heard Mr. Bryan. His address only occupied a little more than 45 minutes but it seemed but a few minutes to those in the audience so interesting and timely were the remarks of the speaker.

Time has dealt lightly with the great commoner, and yesterday he appeared much the same as he did more than two decades ago when he spoke in this city as a candidate for president. Time also has mellowed Mr. Bryan's oratory and his thought. As Mr. Bryan progressed in his address Friday afternoon, his manner was more the manner of an instructor talking to his pupils or of a father talking to his children.

There was present all the magnetic quality of oratory of former days, only more subdued. As time has softened these other qualities so too has its impress come upon the speech of this, the world's greatest private citizen. The shafts of speech do not have the piercing quality of yore because undoubtedly thru the years there has come to Mr. Bryan a clearer vision and a more kindly feeling toward the world and its people and their hopes and ambitions.

William Jennings Bryan is without doubt the greatest citizen Jacksonville has ever produced. Because of his former residence here Jacksonville has become known thruout the entire world. His coming Friday was not only a great compliment to Illinois Woman's college but to Jacksonville. Dr. Harker and those associated with him feel deeply grateful to Mr. Bryan for coming and doubly so because he insisted upon paying all of his expense incident to the trip.

Applause Greets Speaker

The audience expressed its appreciation of Mr. Bryan's visit by vigorous applause when he appeared upon the platform. Applause which lasted several minutes greeted him when he arose to speak and he was frequently interrupted by applause during his speech. Dr. T. J. Pitner and M. F. Dunlap had seats upon the platform. Mr. Dunlap has been a close personal friend of Mr. Bryan for more than 40 years and this friendship beautifully typifies that of Damon and Pythias.

In introducing Mr. Bryan, Dr. Harker prefaced his introduction with a brief resume of the day. He also announced that the Charles Adams alumnae fund of $5,000 raised for a memorial scholarship fund for the fourth president of the college had been completed. Dr. Harker said that the story of the manner in which this fund was raised was an interesting one but could not be told at this time. "This institution," said the speaker "was founded in prayer, perpetuated in sacrifice and the glory of God and had faith in God to lead it to greater things to come."

Dr. Harker said there was no need to introduce Mr. Bryan to a Jacksonville audience as he was so well known both from former residence and the things he had accomplished since leaving here. He expressed the appreciation of the college in Mr. Bryan's giving of his valuable time to be present on this occasion.

Mr. Bryan prefaced his address with references of the days when he was a student and then a citizen of Jacksonville. A few of his thoughts are given.

"Students of the college and ladies and gentlemen: I am not willing to take all of the responsibility of being here today. Dr. Harker is also responsible to a large degree. I find the prototype of Dr. Harker in the Bible in the 'Man who got up in the night to give a man bread.' He did not do this because he wanted to give the bread but because of the importunity of the man who wanted the bread. Dr. Harker is one of the men who do things. He believes in going after anything and when he does he keeps at it until he gets it."

"It is largely thru his efforts that this institution has grown to be such an honor to the church it represents and to the city in which it is located."

Anniversaries Important.

"Forty-one years ago I came to Jacksonville as a student. In those days the Woman's college extended from this location to the end of West College avenue. I remember one night it was decided to visit the Woman's college and the son of a Methodist preacher was selected as leader. He did not appear and I was selected. We started out and were arrested before we got down town. I kept on trying to get her, however, and finally I have succeeded."

"An anniversary," said the speaker, "is an important occasion and becomes more important as the figures increase. We notice anniversaries and birthdays more as we grow older. As man grows old he decays and some say that the same is true of an institution or a nation. But I do not believe that nations are like men. A nation or an institution should grow better as the years pass. If it does not do so there is a reason."

"There is no reason why this institution should not grow greater as the years pass. There is no reason why you should not look forward to a more glorious future and when those who celebrate the 171st anniversary of the school look back to the 71st anniversary they should take courage for its future welfare."

The speaker told of hearing a lecturer once describe a building in India in such beautiful words that when he was touring the world he was anxious to see it. In company with his wife he saw it by moonlight and it was indeed beautiful. This building was erected by an Indian Prince for his favorite wife. Then the speaker told of going to see the building by daylight. Then, he said: "I saw not only the building but the people and all of the squalor and poverty about it. The thought came to me and has remained with me since how much better it would have been instead of spending millions the building cost for the purpose intended it had been spent in the uplift of women."

Study of Government

"Since I left this city and went to Lincoln, Nebraska, thirty years ago I devoted largely of my time to three fundamentals, 'Man's Relation to Government, Society and God.' I am going to speak of these in inverse order leaving the most important for the last."

The speaker told of his ambition as a barefoot boy to become a lawyer. He told of keeping that ambition always before him thru school, and then of studying law and entering upon its practice. Of his removal to Lincoln and receiving the nomination for congress because no one thought there was any chance for election. "But," said the speaker, "I went in on a Democratic landslide and went out two years afterward on a reverse curve. During my time in Washington I became familiar with political affairs and have since felt that it was worthy of my time and thought."

"This nation has the best form of government in the world. I do not mean that it is perfect, because it was made with human hands. When the Democrats are in power I can prove by any Republican that it is not perfect. When the Republicans are in power no proof is necessary."

The speaker told of the spread of democracy. He called attention to China where a republican government was established and has stood despite two attempts to overthrow it. Russia was cited as an example of the people in seeking for better government. Mr. Bryan in spite of the dark outlook for Russia at present, predicted that it would become one of the greatest republics in the world.

"Power to decide rests with the people," said Mr. Bryan. "It is true that mistakes will be made but when mistakes are made by autocracy it is the mistakes of a few made for the many and no effort is made to correct them. If mistakes are made by the people they can be corrected."

The speaker urged the teaching of the fundamental principles of Government to the child. "Because," he said, "only ten per cent of the children enter the high school. Only three per cent enter colleges and universities. For that reason every child should early be given some definite idea of the government under which it is to live."

Mr. Bryan also urged his hearers to work and vote for the constitutional convention which will enable the people to take the rule from the minority. He told of the carrying of Nebraska for prohibition by the people when the constitution was amended so that the people could voice their sentiment. In contrast he drew a picture of Texas and Kentucky which had defeated the proposition because of the constitution.

Democracy Will Rule World
"After this world war," said the speaker, "democracy is going to rule the world. But democracy will not be complete until woman is allowed to share in full, with man, its blessings and responsibilities."

Speaking of man's relation to society Mr. Bryan asked the question of whether a man could honestly earn a certain amount of money. The speaker said that a man could rightly earn $100,000 in thirty-three and one third years. That he could earn even five hundred million dollars in that time.

Mr. Bryan said, "A man should not exact any more from society than he honestly earns from society. I believe that Thomas Jefferson by his work for humanity earned five hundred million dollars if he had asked for it. I believe Abraham Lincoln earned that much for his service to society. So too did the men who gave the power of steam, electricity, the gasoline engine which has made possible the automobile, flying machine and the ice machine." The only trouble," said the speaker, "is

IMPORTANT FOOTBALL GAME FOR TODAY

Minnesota Takes on Indiana—Chicago Hopes to Down Purdue—Illinois and Wisconsin Mix in Hot Game—No Other Games of Importance in Big Ten.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Games of importance in the scramble for the "Big Ten" football championship are set for decision today. The Minnesota eleven will attempt to eliminate Indiana from the race in a game to be played at Minneapolis. Wisconsin and Illinois will clash at Urbana and Chicago will take on Purdue at Stagg Field.

Altho other Western Conference teams will take the field, their results will have no bearing on the championship. Iowa will face Grinnell at Iowa City and Michigan will play the Michigan Aggies at Ann Arbor. Ohio State, which many critics regard as likely to retain the conference title which it won for the first time last year, and Northwestern, have no contests scheduled. Pointing to its overwhelming victories over Kansas and Oklahoma, Illinois hopes to make its conference debut of the season with a triumph over Wisconsin. Coach Zupke started in Monday to develop an attack and warned his players to expect a desperate battle from the Badgers, who held the strong Notre Dame eleven to a scoreless draw last week. The game also will be Wisconsin's first conference affair of the season. Coach John Richards of the Badgers was greatly disappointed because his players failed to score against Notre Dame, but is confident of an improved showing against the Illinois.

As a result of the 48 to 0 victory over Vanderbilt, critics look to Chicago to down Purdue. The showing of the Maroons Saturday was a pleasing surprise to Stagg's followers. The victory put a world of confidence into the green and light material offered the veteran coach. Purdue barely escaped defeat at the hands of De Pauw last Saturday and will have to play a much improved game to keep Chicago from rolling up a big count.

Defeating Chicago is a trick Purdue has been trying to put over since 1894—the date of the Boilermakers' last victory over the Chicagoans. Twenty two games have been played between the teams and Chicago has won all but four of them. Purdue captured the honors in 1897, 1899 and 1894, and in 1901 the two teams battled to a 5 to 5 tie at Chicago.

Minnesota is expected to take Indiana's measure, altho the Hoosiers are determined to hold the Gophers to the closest possible score. Coach Stiehm of the Indiana institution has been seriously handicapped thru the lack of material, but has succeeded in developing a "scrappy" eleven of which two or three veterans formed the nucleus. Minnesota demonstrated its driving power in rolling up a 64 to 0 score against South Dakota state last Saturday. With but one exception the players emerged from the contest without injury. Sullivan, a promising half-back, suffered a bruised back, and probably will be kept out of practice until next week. It was his first contest with Minnesota and his shift end runs caused much comment.

The clash between Notre Dame and the well balanced Nebraska eleven at Lincoln is attracting considerable sectional interest. The Cornhuskers squad, reported to be one of the best ever developed at Nebraska, appears to have the edge on the Hoosiers. Nebraska buried Iowa under a topheavy score last week, while Notre Dame was tying Wisconsin.

The Northwestern eleven, which will be idle Saturday, is facing a brisk training program in preparation for the annual clash with Chicago, Oct. 27. Coach Fred Murphy and followers of the Purple squad decline to admit that Northwestern, despite its overwhelming defeat at the hands of Ohio State, is entirely out of the running for conference honors.

With another week ahead of him Coach Murphy hopes to build up a team to take the measure of Chicago. Beating Stagg's players is a tasteful dish for Northwestern. The Purple clad players bowled over Chicago last season for the first time in years and hope to repeat.

Coach Murphy and his charges plan to witness the Chicago-Purdue game Saturday to get a line on Chicago's plays and also the style of the Boilermakers, whom Northwestern will meet at Purdue on Nov. 3.

Osborne Baker of Franklin was a visitor with town people yesterday.

WAVERLY SHUTS OUT PALMYRA
Waverly blanked the Palmyra team at Waverly Friday afternoon by a score of 38 to 0. Palmyra never threatened Waverly's goal and the team seemed to show but little "pop" during the game. Waverly was without the services of her regular quarterback and another first string man but was able to score almost at will. Before the end of the first half the Waverly team began to use substitutes and during the second half the entire second team was in action. Despite this the second string men ran up a total of 19 points as many as the first team made. Waverly has no game today but next Saturday plays Carlisle at that town.

Wentz of Springfield was referee. Groat of Winchester umpire and Carter of Waverly head linesman. The following team lined up for Waverly at the beginning of the game: Hughes, le, Carroll Redfern, lt, Trestron, lg, Sperry, c, Allen, qb, Bostic, rt, Knight, re, McMahan, qb, Carl Redfern, lh, Woods, rf, Colbert, fb.

Elsie Hayden of Pekin was a business caller here one day this week. Clarence McNear and family are back from their summer's sojourn at Niota where Mr. McNear had a position with a dredge boat company.

Mrs. John Chambers and two children were motorists to Griggsville Saturday, having an appointment with a dentist there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Quintal and Rev. Haas were in attendance at the Mme. Bernhardt performance in Jacksonville Friday night.

We are glad to mention the continued improvement of Carl Ritter from his recent operation for appendicitis. He has left the hospital at Washington and is continuing his trip through the east, which his illness halted for a time, cutting out, however, many of the details and will probably arrive home the latter part of next week.

Six auto loads of our folks were attendants at the Miss Myrtle Sheppard's music class recital held in the M. P. church, Bluffs, on Monday night. Many of our young people are members.

Rev. and Mrs. George E. Haas are back from a week's visit among old friends in Adams and Schuyler counties. They also attended the Quincy district ministerial convention held in Quincy the 9th inst. Superintendent Flanagan was host to the convention at dinner served by the ladies in the dining hall of the church.

A very needful act was performed by the school board the other day in the appointment of Eugene Baumgardner as truant officer. We hope that he will do his full duty for quite a number of the youngsters have gotten into the habit of roaming away from school to their great hurt.

The pupils of the school served a supper to the public in the opera hall Friday evening, the proceeds to go toward a fund to purchase a piano for the ninth and tenth grade room. Apple pickers are closing in on the crop for this season and will just about finish the job this week. The product is of a very good quality.

Mrs. Joe Six of the Oxville neighborhood is still very ill. She has been bedfast almost continually since in March last.

HELPING FIGHT THE FIGHT FOR DEMOCRACY

"We are fighting to teach all the nations of the world the lesson we ourselves have not fully learned, but toward which we are aspiring. We cannot build up one nation into a great democratic force while there lives in any part of the world a great autocrat power built upon militarism which seeks only for the destruction of other nations. It cannot be done."

"The first thing women want to get into their heads is this: that the army of men is not one thing, and that the army of women is; other; that the army of men are not patriots and the army of women assistants to patriots. The army of women is an integral part of the army of the Government to carry on the war, and is of vital importance to the success of the war, as is the army in the field."

"Now the Liberty Loan drive is on before us, and we should devote every energy to that. We women are to do our part. We are to take our share in this work. Before you can get a billion dollars sold in bonds, you have got to sell one dollar's worth in bonds—and before you can sell a million bonds, you have got to sell one bond. Now you and I can sell one bond, and they will never get their millions until we sell our bonds. And it ought to be the consecrated idea of every woman to buy a bond—if we have to sell something that we have got, or haven't got, or to borrow something we never expect to pay—and start out in that way. Remember we get the bond we have got something that moth and rust cannot corrupt nor destroy—something that will last, something that is ours."

"Now if you are able to buy one bond and there is somebody who is not able to buy any, don't buy two for yourself—buy for another. I am going to tell you what I did when the first bond drive came. I had something I could sell for a thousand dollars. I sold it. I thought I would get a thousand dollar bond. Then I began to think of my family—you know an old maid has a bigger family than anyone else. I said: Now I am not the only patriot in the family—I have got a lot of youngsters who cannot afford to buy bonds, but I should be very mean to get a thousand dollar bond for myself, and not have the other members of my family get any. And so I divided up. Every niece and every grand-niece got a bond, and they are tied up to the Government by that little bit of a bond."

"I am glad the Government had to call the women in its financial plight. They thought women had never known anything about that,

Cold Settled In His Back

"Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief," Ed Veltan, Rogers, Neb., writes: "I have used Foley Kidney Pills for backache, the result of catching cold which settled in my back. Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief and I can cheerfully recommend them."

The reason Foley Kidney Pills act so satisfactorily is because they neutralize and dissolve the poisonous waste matter that remains in the blood because the kidneys do not do their work properly in filtering and casting out from the system acid and other poisons.

Relief usually follows in a few days and such symptoms as pain in the sides or back, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatism, too frequent action of the bladder at night, and other painful and annoying ailments disappear. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful ingredients. They are safe as well as quick acting.

ANNUAL ILLINOIS STATE BAPTIST CONVENTION

Seventy Third Annual Session Held at Moline—Rev. A. A. Todd of This City on Program—Reports Show Prosperous Year.

Rev. A. A. Todd, pastor of First Baptist church, has returned from Moline, where he attended the seventy-third annual session of the Illinois State Baptist convention, held Oct. 15-18. Rev. Mr. Todd made an address at the convention Tuesday morning. The annual sermon was delivered by Rev. C. W. Gilkey of Chicago, who gave his impressions of the need of the church under present war conditions. This speaker was able to deal with this subject in a definite way as he has for some time been engaged in work with the soldiers at Ft. Sheridan.

At the evening session Tuesday the address of welcome was given by R. W. Babcock, and response was made by the Hon. E. L. Chapin of Chicago. The annual state convention address was made by Rev. D. O. Hopkins, Ph. D. of Champaign, who urged upon members of the denomination a greater spirit of self-sacrifice. The discussion of church finances was led by Dr. F. A. Agar of New York, whose remarks emphasized the importance of conducting the financial affairs of the church in a thoroughly business-like way.

A great deal of discussion followed the report of the single collecting agency committee, given by Rev. S. H. Bowyer, D. D. of Springfield, chairman. This plan contemplates the collecting of missionary funds thru one agency instead of thru several as in the past, and would go far toward increasing the efficiency of the church in its missionary activities. The motion to favor the plan was made and carried. Dr. J. Y. Aitchison of Boston in a strong address pointed out the importance of taking care of all benevolences made necessary by the war, and at the same time not forgetting the home and foreign mission fields. The theme, "Christian Education in War Times," was ably emphasized by Dr. F. W. Padelford of Boston. This speaker emphasized the present need for trained men and women and said that the matter of education should be given more attention than in the past if this country is to meet the demand upon it which is sure to come at the close of the war.

The financial directors of the association gave the following report for the year:

Funds received for current work.....	$22,303.42
Endowment.....	16,438.00
For university church.....	9,426.97
Total received for Baptist work.....	$48,168.39

"FUNDAMENTALS" THEME OF WILLIAM J. BRYAN

that the men who have been giving these things have been too busy to collect, and the ones who have been collecting are too busy collecting to give anything."

Faith in God Essential
Taking up the last of the fundamentals, Man's Relation to God, Mr. Bryan said, "The greatest thought that can come to man is the thought of God. The Christian makes a mistake in allowing the atheist to ask all of the questions. The atheist asks the Christian, 'Where do you begin?' You answer, 'With the Bible.' He asks, 'Where does the Bible begin?' you answer, 'It begins with the beginning.'"

"But the atheist cannot explain the theory of creation. The Christian begins with God and reasons downward. The atheist begins with a clod of dirt and reasons upward. A little child knows just as much about the mystery of life as the most learned atheist. Man has wrought all the wonderful things of civilization without knowing why. Man does not know why he gets into love until he is into it. Then he is not scientific until he gets out of it."

"In closing, I urge upon you the importance that these relationships must be understood by every citizen. Because they must be understood if one is to measure up to the citizenship this country demands."

Morning Exercises.
The commemorative services were held in Music hall Friday morning beginning at 10:30 o'clock. After an organ prelude by Mr. Stearns and the doxology, prayer was offered by Rev. W. W. Theobald and suitable passages of scripture and the Apostles' creed were recited. Miss Jessie Wall then sang in a very capable and pleasing manner a solo entitled "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings." The young lady possessed a voice of rare compass combined with sweetness and tenderness which make a delightful combination.

In a feeling manner Dr. Harker referred to the occasion, paying a just tribute to the noble men who wrought so faithfully for the welfare and organization of the college. He paid a special tribute of respect to Mrs. Griffith of Springfield who, as Alice McElroy, was of the graduating class in 1852 and is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Pitner and the doctor at Fairview. He remarked that in those good, old times they had school years ten and months long and used to rise before six for morning prayers.

First Board of Trustees.
"The First Board of Trustees," was the theme of a fine address by Mrs. Chester Hemphill. The lady told of the privations and hardships endured by the devoted people of the early days that the young might be educated. She paid especial attention to Mrs. Cartwright and Akers, both from Kentucky. The former was in earlier life a gambler and attended horse races but was converted and ordained at the age of eighteen and answered the first roll call for 45 consecutive annual conferences. He could deliver a strong sermon and with his fists silence would-be mischief makers at meeting. He looked out of the house a minister's wife because she opposed family prayers. He was once preaching when a man entered and at once attracted marked and obsequious attention and being informed that the newcomer was Andrew Jackson, said that no matter how great a man was he would go to hell just as soon as a common man if he didn't repent.

Dr. Akers was of a different mold, gentle and refined and scholarly as well. He would preach two hours, stop for dinner and continue two or three hours more. He established the manual labor school at Ebenezer with three Indians and three white young men all of whom were to go as missionaries to the native Indians. Ebenezer, Winchester and Jacksonville were all considered as sites for the Woman's College and Jacksonville won by a small vote.

All the founders were men of ability and great devotion and gave of their labor and means with the greatest liberality for good causes.

Told of First President.
Mrs. Paul P. Thompson told of James F. Jacques, the first president. He was born near Evansville, Indiana Dec. 8, 1809. He obtained a college education and later won several degrees. He was educated for the law but felt a call to preach the gospel and was ordained and filled the pulpit for two years and then assumed the duties of president of the college. In the college he won many friends and after a career of six years he had charge of an institution in Quincy for a year and when the war broke out he was at first made chaplain of the 6th Ill. Cavalry but later was employed by Gov. Yates to assist in the governor's office and to encourage enlistments. He did so well at this that he was asked finally to follow the course he had marked out for others, so he set to work to organize the preachers' regiment, the famous 73rd, and while it was not wholly composed of ministers there were many in it and it did famous work during the war and was with a Missouri regiment the first to climb Missionary Ridge at Chattanooga. His twelve year old son was a drummer and followed the regiment till ordered back by a superior officer. Col. Jacques made two trips under a flag of truce to the Confederacy hoping to accomplish something in the way of peace but the rebel leaders were obdurate and insisted on independence and that ended it and once Col. Jacques was afraid he would be detained in Libby prison.

Took Part in Many Battles.
He participated in many battles and in the battle of Franklin his regiment was especially complimented by Gen. George H. Thomas for mainly being instrumental in saving the day. After the war he went to England and later settled in the South. He traveled four thousand miles to be present at a reunion of his regiment and many years ago he was present at the 50th commencement of the college and was an honored guest for a week here. He met his death at the age of 78 by coming north too early in the year which caused a cold, developing into pneumonia.

S. W. Nichols told of some experiences which Col. Jacques had mentioned to him. Dr. Harker told how Rev. Wm. J. Rutledge raised money to buy five acres where the college now stands and when the advocates of another site were making their plea he drew his deed and won the day. Miss Clara Moore favored the audience with a violin solo, Ave Maria, which won great applause. The young lady is a person highly gifted and accomplished, with a wide reputation as a talented performer. The college song and organ postlude ended the exercises and all adjourned to Harker Hall and Hon. Wm. J. Bryan having arrived a reception was tendered him when he was introduced to all strangers and greeted many old time friends. Lunch was then announced and it was conducted on the cafeteria plan and a superb bill of fare was supplied and greatly enjoyed by all. It was wholly informal and delightful and as good a substitute as possible for an out door picnic, made impossible by the cold weather.

WOMEN IN ILLINOIS REGISTER NOVEMBER FIFTH

The council of National Defense, a new governmental body, was created by an Act of Congress in August, 1916, to deal with the internal problems of the country arising from war conditions, and was empowered, and directed to form an advisory committee of experts to aid in its work. A woman's committee was made a part of this advisory committee, and the first task it was given was that of taking a census of the country.

The women's war census is to be taken thruout Illinois the week of November 5th. In registering the women the official cards adopted at Washington will be used. On it is recorded every ability she possesses, everything she has done, is doing, is able to do or is willing to do, and also what she cannot do. Every woman over sixteen years of age should be registered. The census, however, is voluntary and does not bind the registrant to fulfill any service. It is not political in any way.

Plans for the registration are maturing rapidly in the different communities thruout the state. Registrars are being trained and clerical forces organized to look after the detail of registration.

Two sub-committees of the Illinois Republican Committee, of state-wide memberships and importance, have just been organized. One of these, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Jean Ellis Driver, will look after the welfare of registrants who ask for paid service and co-operate with other organizations in securing employment for those who desire it. Another committee will develop, thru volunteer service, the social service activities in every community.

MOTHERHOOD EXALTED BY EVANGELIST HANLEY

Large Congregation Hears Dr. Hanley Pay a Beautiful Tribute to Mothers Friday Night—Mr. Fisher Sang Mother's Songs—Afternoon Meeting for Women and Girls Largely Attended.

Hanley-Fisher Revival Announcements
3 P. M. Today—Street Meeting, Ayers Bank. Every body invited. Dr. Hanley will speak. Mr. Fisher will sing.
7:30 P. M. Today—Service at Grace Church. Dr. Hanley will give a reading from "The Lost Word," by Henry Van Dyke. The Booster Chorus will sing.
2:30 P. M. Tomorrow—Mass Meeting for men and boys at Grace church. Sermon by Dr. Hanley on "The White Blackbird."
Mass meeting for women and girls at Centenary Church. Miss Robertson will speak on "The Path of Service."
7:30 P. M. Tomorrow—Union Service at Grace Church.

"Mothers' Night" was observed in a most unique and impressive manner last evening. Dr. Hanley is wonderfully versatile in planning these special services. No two are just alike, and every one contains surprises which intensify the interest.

Nearly everybody last night wore a white flower as the Evangelist had suggested. After using these flowers during the singing of "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" they were gathered by a dozen young ladies who brought them to the front where Dr. Hanley offered a prayer dedicating them for the purpose of cheering the homes of invalids and shut-ins. These flowers are to be distributed today to such homes.

The demonstration with the handkerchiefs was also of unique and vital significance. All the music of the evening seemed especially tender and heartwarming. The orchestra was given a large round of applause for the splendid help they are rendering every night. The choir was in full swing. Mr. Earl Voyles and Miss Clara Ranson were at the pianos. Mr. Fisher sang Kipling's great poem, "Mother O' Mine" and Miss Berryman sang with deep feeling and appreciation. "Our Mother's Way."

"Mother's Favorite Hymn" was called for. A laugh went over the audience when one man said, "Giv'ly Baby." Several of the songs mentioned were then sung in part. Rev. Spoonst announced the street meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in front of Ayers Bank. Mr. Fisher will have a small organ in the automobile for his accompaniment and will sing. Dr. Hanley, who is an expert in such services, will speak. The intention is to catch the ear of many who do not attend the regular meetings.

Dr. Hanley while making the announcements threw a large bouquet at the Jacksonville newspapers. He expressed his deep gratitude for their generous treatment and for the excellent publicity which they are giving to the campaign. It means much to the success of the whole movement.

Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick offered the evening prayer. "Shall we Gather at the River?" "God Give us Homes," "It is Well With My Soul," and "It Pays to Serve Jesus" were hymns sung during the enthusiastic song service.

The Sermon
Dr. Hanley preached on "The Woman Thou Gavest Me." It was a sermon full of pleasing, homely humor and mellow pathos. He spoke of what he knew and everybody felt the reality of his message.

He began by exalting motherhood. "The most beautiful specimen of all creation is a mother." He went back to the Creation story in Genesis. After Adam and Eve were expelled from Eden they had to go out and build a home. "Home costs. It costs sacrifice, self-control, genuine love, mutual consideration, and appreciation. But the great element after all is faith in God. We need God in our homes and in our hearts. Education is a failure if it destroys faith."

He closed with a striking story of Ralph Parlette's. It was concerning a man who killed his wife through drugery. The message fell as seed into good ground.

Dr. Hanley's preaching was like the flowing of an artesian spring. It bubbled out fresh and free and without any apparent effort on his part. Those who are permitted to hear him night after night are becoming more and more eager for their friends to come out to enjoy these great meetings.

Tomorrow will be the greatest day thus far. One thousand men are expected to hear the special address at 2:30 on the paradoxical theme, "The White Blackbird." Tomorrow night a doubtless an overflow meeting will be necessary. This will be held in State Street church.

Afternoon Meeting
There was a great audience present at the afternoon service for women and girls. Delegations were in attendance from the high school, David Prince school, Illinois Woman's College and Brown's Business College. At the latter institution Mr. Claybaugh dismissed at 4:15 to enable the girls to attend. Following the song service and a prayer by Rev. R. B. Wilson, announcement was made of the woman's meeting at Centenary church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, when the theme will be "The Path of Service." Mr. Fisher then sang with telling effect "My Mother's Prayer." Dr. Hanley then delivered a sermon on "Woman and Morals," from which a few extracts are appended hereto:

"The question of morals has become an exceedingly grave one in our nation. Every year 500,000 girls enter lives of shame, enough to form a chain reaching from New York City to Chicago. These girls are not all from the tenement districts and slums of the great cities, but some are from the high schools and colleges.

"My message this afternoon is not with the hope of accomplishing a great reform in this direction but as a preventive measure. Among the causes for girls' mistakes is the fact that men set standards for women, and women set lower standards for men. This results in a double standard. Men have more sense than women in that they demand perfection and the women do not. Love is the greatest factor in life. It may be a wonderful help or a source of great danger. It leads close to heaven or near to hell.

"Another mistake is in the matter of amusements. Girls should be made to understand that joy riding is dangerous and that great care must be exercised in the selection of amusements. The choice of companions is another important thing in a girl's life. The most really popular girl is the one who has rules of conduct and sticks to them. The devil will give anything we want if we will pay the price. Other mistakes common among girls are in the choice of reading matter, the manner of dressing and a lack of charity for those who have fallen. The only safeguard for the young girl is God in the life, a personal religion."

The order has had a healthy growth and has been a force for good in the community. The members have enjoyed the regular meetings and various functions of the organization while, in addition to the social and formal work of the body its fraternal features have not been overlooked. The meetings have been held in the Masonic temple and have been characterized by a feeling of fraternity and good fellowship most pleasant to behold.

It was deemed suitable that the 21st anniversary should be observed and commemorated and to that end a special meeting was arranged and a program which was much enjoyed carried out. Mrs. Alex Rabjohn, the present Worthy Matron presided and the whole affair was most enjoyable. A large number of gentlemen and ladies attended and it was in the nature of an open meeting and the best of feeling prevailed throughout. The following was the formal program:

Welcome address—Julius G. Strawn.
Piano solo—Mrs. Pervius.
Reading—Miss Lillian McCullough.
Piano solo—Mrs. Curtis.
Ode to the Flag—Charles Rabjohn.
America—The Audience.

An old-fashioned spelling match followed, the gentlemen on one side and the ladies on the other. Mrs. Rabjohn gave out the words and the ladies won. A social time followed with nice refreshments and at a late hour the gathering dispersed well pleased with the exercises of the evening.

BOX SUPPER TONIGHT AT PLEASANT VIEW SCHOOL

Interesting Program to be Given at School Near oncord.

A box supper and interesting program will be given at the Pleasant View School on Saturday night. Everybody invited.

Minister C. G. Cantrell, who officiated at the wedding of Miss Mary Lowden and Beryl Litter on Tuesday evening, drove up in his Halliday car and was accompanied by Mrs. Cantrell, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Way. They had a nice trip and got home about 11 o'clock P. M.

Miss Hester Clem, the singing evangelist, who assisted so well in the two weeks revival at the Christian church, returned to her home at Gays on Tuesday. She will go to another meeting next week.

John Eskew's sale will be Oct. 26th instead of the 24th on account of the Farmers Institute at Chapin.

T. N. Bowe drove to Versailles on Monday and came back on Wednesday night with a load of apples.

T. N. Bowe, living on the Nergenhah farm by Baker school, had the misfortune to lose a mare Friday, in a very unusual manner. She jumped a lot fence and landed on a well platform not strong enough to bear her weight, so she went into the well which was about 16 feet deep.

Neighbors were summoned, and about a dozen men were soon on hand, bringing ropes and tackle blocks. After erecting pulleys the ropes and pulleys were attached and the mare pulled out. She died very shortly, however, and Mr. Bowe said she was the 15th horse for him to lose. While she was not a young animal she was one they drove single as well as double and the loss will be more to Mr. Bowe than the market value of the mare.

A. L. FRENCH ENTERTAINS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

CARROLLTON ALTON TICKET AGENT DIES

DEATH CAUSED BY EXPLOSION FROM GASOLINE

Fred Kelly Makes Fatal Mistake of Attempting to Start Fire With Highly Explosive Fuel.

Carrollton, Oct. 19.—Fred Kelly, ticket agent for the Chicago & Alton road at Carrollton, died Friday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock from burns which resulted from a gasoline explosion at his home at 6:30 Friday morning. Mr. Kelly was building a fire in a heating stove and because it was not burning fast enough, took a two gallon can containing a quantity of gasoline and poured some of the liquid on the fire. There was an immediate explosion, the flames and gasoline enveloping Kelly and severely burning his chest and arms. He ran out of the house with his clothing on fire, and John T. Harris, who lives next door, hearing the explosion, ran out and threw a coat around Kelly in an effort to extinguish the flames. This he finally succeeded in doing but not until the unfortunate man was badly burned. Medical aid was at once summoned and everything possible was done to relieve his intense suffering. It was apparent, however, that the injuries were fatal and the end came at 3:20 as mentioned above.

Mr. Kelly was a member of a prominent family and had always borne an excellent reputation in his home community. He was a son of William C. Kelly, supervisor of the town of Linder, Ill., and was about twenty eight years of age. He leaves a wife and three small children. Deceased had for some years been a member of the Baptist church. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

An inquest was held Friday evening by Coroner Thomas Carmody, the jury reaching a verdict that the deceased came to his death by burns resulting from a gasoline explosion.

HAYES RELEASED FROM CUSTODY

Elza Hayes who was arrested on information filed by States Attorney Robinson after being exonerated by the coroner's jury of the killing of William Stevens was arraigned before Justice Coons for hearing Friday afternoon.

Hayes was represented by Attorneys W. L. Armstrong and L. O. Vaught while States Attorney Robinson appeared for the people. The defense asked for change of venue which was granted and the case went to Justice Henderson's court.

The hearing of testimony occupied the entire afternoon and the case was bitterly fought. After hearing the evidence Justice Henderson decided that it did not warrant the holding of Hayes and he was released.

State's Attorney Robinson in commenting on the case last night said: "I would not have been satisfied with the action of the coroner's jury and felt that the case should be given a closer scrutiny. Altho I feel that I have done my duty as states attorney, it is my intention to call the attention of the grand jury to the case when it convenes."

BERNHARDT, THE MARVELOUS

Mme Bernhardt, the greatest actress of all time, appeared at the Grand Friday evening before an audience that completely filled the theater. Mme. Bernhardt's offerings were: Portia, in the court scene from "The Merchant of Venice," and the "Death of Cleopatra." Time has dealt lightly with the divine Sarah, but she also has taken away some of the fire of early days. The art, however, is in evidence, and it seems to have acquired a new dignity with the passing years.

This marvelous French woman has seen many actors come and go in her long stage career. Booth, Barrett, McCullough, Cushman, Irving, Terry and Mansfield have all received their last curtain call and only live in memories of older playgoers. Yet we see this woman full of the vigor of life still presenting her art to the public. Today she has for leading man the son of one who was her leading man in 1880.

It is impossible to find words to express the depth and breadth of Bernhardt's art. Attention to detail has ever been her watchword. She brings to the roles of Portia and Cleopatra the subtleties that have made her fame. It is a pleasure to hear her beautiful French for she reads the lines of Portia as if she were like music. The unfamiliar with the language one who has read the play needs no interpreter to understand the work of this actress.

Bernhardt was given capable support by Jean Angelo. The two scenes were interspersed with musical numbers by a company of artists of ability and were a pleasing addition to the evening's program. Manager Johnson is to be complimented upon securing such high class attractions and Mme Bernhardt's engagement will go down in history as one of Jacksonville's most important dramatic events.

CAUGHT HAND IN SICKLE.
William Ryan, son of Michael Ryan of Franklin was brought to Our Savior's hospital Friday suffering from a severe cut on the little finger of the right hand. Ryan was attempting to adjust a sickle on a mowing machine when the team started up and his finger was caught. Dr. Norris attended the injury. Ryan will be kept from work for several days but no serious results are anticipated.

AMERICAN PHYSICIAN IN BRITISH SERVICE

The letter given hereunder is written by Dr. Joel Hardesty to his brother, Dr. T. O. Hardesty of this city. Dr. Hardesty is in the British Army service and his letter will prove of interest to American citizens who have been led to believe the British army and British people are suffering great hardships:

"Sept. 14, 1917.

"Dear Brother:
"This leaves me well. Am in the British army service in France. As yet have had nothing to do, as I am stationed at a casualty clearing station about twenty miles from the front line and there is not much to do. The medical officers are very nice to us. I have been over some of the old battle fields of 1916 and to see some of the obstacles overcome by the British one can only have an optimistic view of the outcome.

"Much of the food shortage you read of is assumed. I have had all I wanted since I left and it is sufficient. The British people say things about it but really it is at most only a rough fare and they notice it because it is something they have never been used to. Things generally are as cheap here as at home and as easily obtained. It is something a little surprising to see how the women have risen to the occasion in England. Automobiles, ambulances, street cars and all office work is done by women as is much of the farm work. They seem to like it, too.

"Our voyage over was practically without incident. A few narrow escapes from submarine maneuvers, but no actual danger. John is in a different part of the army. Have his address but have not had a chance to get any mail to him or from him as I have only been here for a permanent address but a few days. I haven't had a line from U. S. A. since I came but hope to in a few days. I expect communications to be rather slow.

"Am close enough to hear the big guns and see their flash at night.

"Suppose you have been called out before now. Let me hear from you.

"Yours,

"J. W. Hardesty.
"Address: Lt. Joel W. Hardesty, M. O. R. C., No. 9 C. C. S.—B. E. F., France."

BOY SCOUTS.

Carrying the Message of Democracy Medals to be Awarded for the Sale of Bonds.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Boy Scouts of America will take their places tomorrow as workers in the nation's campaign on behalf of the second Liberty Loan. The day will mark the beginning of their subscription efforts which will not be terminated until next Thursday night. The announced ambition of these 268,380 boys and their 70,000 leaders is to obtain pledges which will assure the sale of nearly $50,000,000 worth of bonds or approximately twice the amount realized in 139,645 homes during the four day campaign which the Boy Scouts conducted in connection with the first Liberty Loan.

Public demonstrations, special publicity efforts and services in the houses of worship will constitute the Boy Scout activities tomorrow and Sunday. During the four days beginning with Monday a house to house canvass will be made. The Boy Scouts will distribute 6,500,000 special bond posters for display in store windows and elsewhere. Camps will be set up in public parks and squares and buglers will call attention to the poster displays. Parades will be held together with a special patriotic demonstration on the occasion of the nation wide celebration of Liberty day, October 24.

Five million application circulars will be left at the homes at which the purchasing of bonds is to be solicited. These were printed by the Government, which has supplied the boys also with 300,000 manuals of bond salesmanship. Expert salesmen will advise the Scouts in their campaign.

At the close of the first campaign, 7,740 war service emblems were awarded to Boy Scouts who sold bonds in ten or more homes. These bear the seal of the Treasury Department. To these emblem holders who qualify in the second campaign a bar will be added. In addition, Colin H. Livingstone, president of the Boy Scouts of America, will award a gold medal to the boy who obtains the largest number of individual subscriptions, and one silver and ten bronze medals to the eleven who rank next. To the Boy Scout troop which turns in the largest number of subscriptions in each State, President Wilson will present an American flag with an appropriate streamer attached.

James E. West, chief scout executive, has informed the Boy Scouts they are carrying the message of democracy and have a definite part to play. "You may never have another chance to do a good turn on such a scale and for such a cause as you have this moment," he said.
